

Code of Conduct

For Participants Under 18

Updated 19th May 2025.

SYG is a space for young people to spend time playing sport, camping, experiencing community, growing friendships, and meeting or reconnecting with Jesus. We hope to send you home from SYG having made some amazing and positive life-impacting memories, in one piece, and with a few dirty clothes from all that mud. So, to make sure that happens, here's what we need you to commit to.

1. SYG is a Christian event, and people come to worship and engage with God. People will do that in different ways, and everyone needs to be respectful of that, even if it's not your thing.
 - a. Everyone must also be respectful that not everyone is at SYG to worship God, and nobody will be forced to participate in anything that they are not comfortable doing.
2. SYG is an alcohol, drug, and smoke free event.
 - a. Medications must be given to your group's First Aider; they'll know what to do and give you instructions.
3. All participants must be under the supervision of a leader at all times, and must not be left at venues alone.
4. Abide to all safety instructions and emergency evacuation plans and seek to practice sport, camping, and all activities in the safest manner possible.
5. Participate in sport in a manner which is respectful and encouraging of others
6. No swearing or slander on the sporting fields... or anywhere.
7. Show respect to all the venues we are a part of throughout the weekend, leaving them in condition than when you first arrived (or even better).
8. Adhere to curfew; all participants must be back at their group campsite by 11:45pm each night of the event. Lights out at midnight.
9. No mixed gendered camping.
10. No camping with over 18's
11. Listen to the instruction of SYG leaders when asked.

Failure to adhere to this Code of Conduct may result in you being removed from the event.

In Summary

Be respectful...

Towards yourself: It's a big weekend; drink lots of water, pack the right gear (its cold out there), know your limits, and go to bed early if necessary.

Towards your team: You may be best friends, or getting to know one another—either way, be kind. Cheer one another on, thank your team helpers and leaders for making this weekend happen, and seek to make others feel welcomed.

Towards your opponents: They are just like you, here to play sport and enjoy an awesome weekend away. Some will be sporting champions, and others are learning as they go. So play fair and play kind.

Towards the referees: Some are professionals, others are volunteers lending a hand, some may even be you! Play the whistle and have fun. If they slip up, chat to them after the game or during a break, and have a kind conversation that helps them understand, and then let it go. They might not be able to change a call they made fifteen minutes ago, and that's okay, but you can help the sport session run smoothly in the future.

Towards the venues and towns: We're invading a country town for 3 days, let's show them our respect by leaving places spotless, picking up your rubbish, and seeking to put a smile on the face of anyone you meet!
